THOUSANDS OF MILES OF OPEN WATER

Papua New Guinea's fishing grounds have always been protected by the everchanging tropical climate, keeping it secret from fervent anglers. It is only recently that fishing enthusiasts have discovered that Papua New Guinea is teeming with isolated fishing grounds and untouched rivers, offering some of the best lure in the world. Cast off in Papua New Guinea for a fishing adventure of a lifetime.

WILD RIVER FISHING EXPEDITIONS

In dense jungle rivers, our world-renowned champ, the might 'lure shy' Papua New Guinea Black Bass, will challenge any enthusiastic angler who dares to think they can catch the elusive beast. Expert anglers, be warned – you have not met your match with our PNG Black Bass or 'Blacky'.

Another remarkable fish is the Niugini Tiger Fish, which is found nowhere else in the world and roams the Southern portion of Papua New Guinea's rivers, especially the Fly and Kikori.

Barramundi, Mangrove Jacks, Saratoga, Spot Tail Bass, Saw Fish, Jungle Perch and Tarpon are some of the amazing fish you can expect on your Papua New Guinea freshwater fishing adventure.

With river fishing, you have the opportunity to meet the friendly and interesting locals, and if you're lucky, you might see a traditional 'Sing Sing' (cultural dance).

Fishing lodges are available with:

Trans Niugini Tours – Bensbach Lodge and Murray River Lodge. Visit: www.pngtours.com

BLUE WATER EXPEDITIONS

For those who prefer the ocean, whether Reef, Bluewater or Deep-sea – Papua New Guinea has got it all to satisfy your angling dreams and test your fishing mettle.

The underwater predators of Papua New Guinea's Bismarck and the Archipelago Seas are poised to erase memories of an angler's past catch.

The coastal Provinces of Madang, East and West New Britain, New Ireland, Central, Milne Bay and the Autonomous Region of Bougainville abound in Marling, Sailfish, Dog Tooth Tuna, Giant Trevally, Mahi Mahi, Spanish Mackerel and more!

NATIONAL GAME FISHING TITLES

This exciting fishing tournament is held annually in Papua New Guinea in selected coastal provinces and is hosted by the Game Fishing Association (GFA). The tournament brings together all GFA members – from clubs to fishing tour operators and overseas anglers who are members of the International Game Fishing Association. For further information visit:

NATIONAL FISHERIES AUTHORITY

All fishing activities in Papua New Guinea from recreational to commercial is closely monitored and governed by the National Fisheries Authority. For further information visit:

GAME FISHING ASSOCIATION OF PAPUA NEW GUINEA

The Game Fishing Association (GFA) of PNG has a small but key role in fishing in Papua New Guinea. The GFA looks after National Fishing Records, oversees the annual National Game Fishing Titles, and ensures all fishing clubs and members fish under IGFA rules, as well as provide support to GFA affiliated Clubs. GFA also represents PNG anglers and fishing clubs in contact with other fishing organisations and the various Government departments.
